Build the dream...

Our business is Speed

Jon Sharp and Team Nemesis is Speed

We have fine tuned it, expanded on it and developed it to it's maximum

Speed Merchants

Nemesis Air Racing is the leader in enhancing performance aircraft and is the most successful racing Team in the history of air racing.

We bring our vast knowledge and experience to make your plane go faster, be more efficient and better handling.

We are speed merchants.

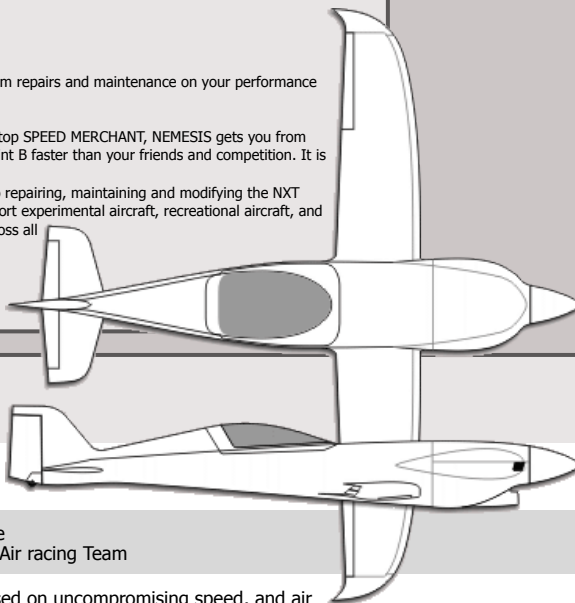

Within NEMESIS wheel house as the premier aviation SPEED MERCHANT

- We consult with airplane owners and mechanics to determine their goals to modify their planes for enhanced performance
- We engineer and design components for more speed
- We assist and consult with development of your plane's modifications
- We fabricate, install, and fine tune your systems for better performance, including engine cowlings, inlets, outlets improving cooling while reducing cooling drag, fillets, fairings, as well as all wind swept surfaces for increased speed and handling

- We perform repairs and maintenance on your performance airplane

As aviation's top SPEED MERCHANT, NEMESIS gets you from point A to point B faster than your friends and competition. It is what we do!

In addition to repairing, maintaining and modifying the NXT kits, we support experimental aircraft, recreational aircraft, and air racers across all the classes.
